★ The Episcopal Diocese of Texas

WHAT IS A BISHOP?

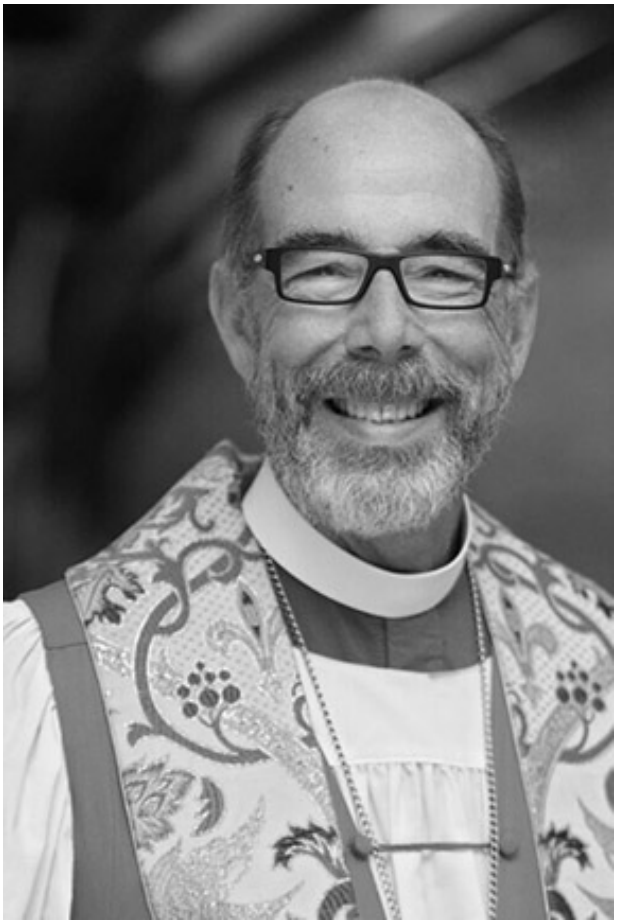

The ministry of a bishop is to represent Christ and his Church, particularly as apostle, chief priest and pastor of a Diocese; to guard the faith, unity and discipline of the whole church; to proclaim the word of God, to act in Christ's name for the reconciliation of the world and for the building up of the Church; and to ordain others to continue Christ's ministry. (Book of Common Prayer, page 855)

Bishops visit churches, baptize and confirm people, serve as counselors and pastors to clergy and laity, preside at diocesan meetings and take part in the meetings of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church's General Convention.

WHO ARE OUR BISHOPS?

The Bishop of the Diocese of Texas, the ninth to serve in this role, is the Rt. Rev. C. Andrew 'Andy' Doyle. Bishops are charged with serving as a pastor to our clergy and the shepherd that protects our faith and the word of God through our church. Bishop Doyle has four other bishops to help him care for our diocese. They are:

- The Rt. Rev. Jeff W. Fisher, Suffragan Bishop (East Region)
- The Rt. Rev. Hector Monterroso, Bishop Assistant (South Region)
- The Rt. Rev. Kathryn 'Kai' M. Ryan, Suffragan Bishop (West Region)
- The Rt. Rev. Brian R. Seage, Assisting Bishop (North Region)

Bishop Brian Seage

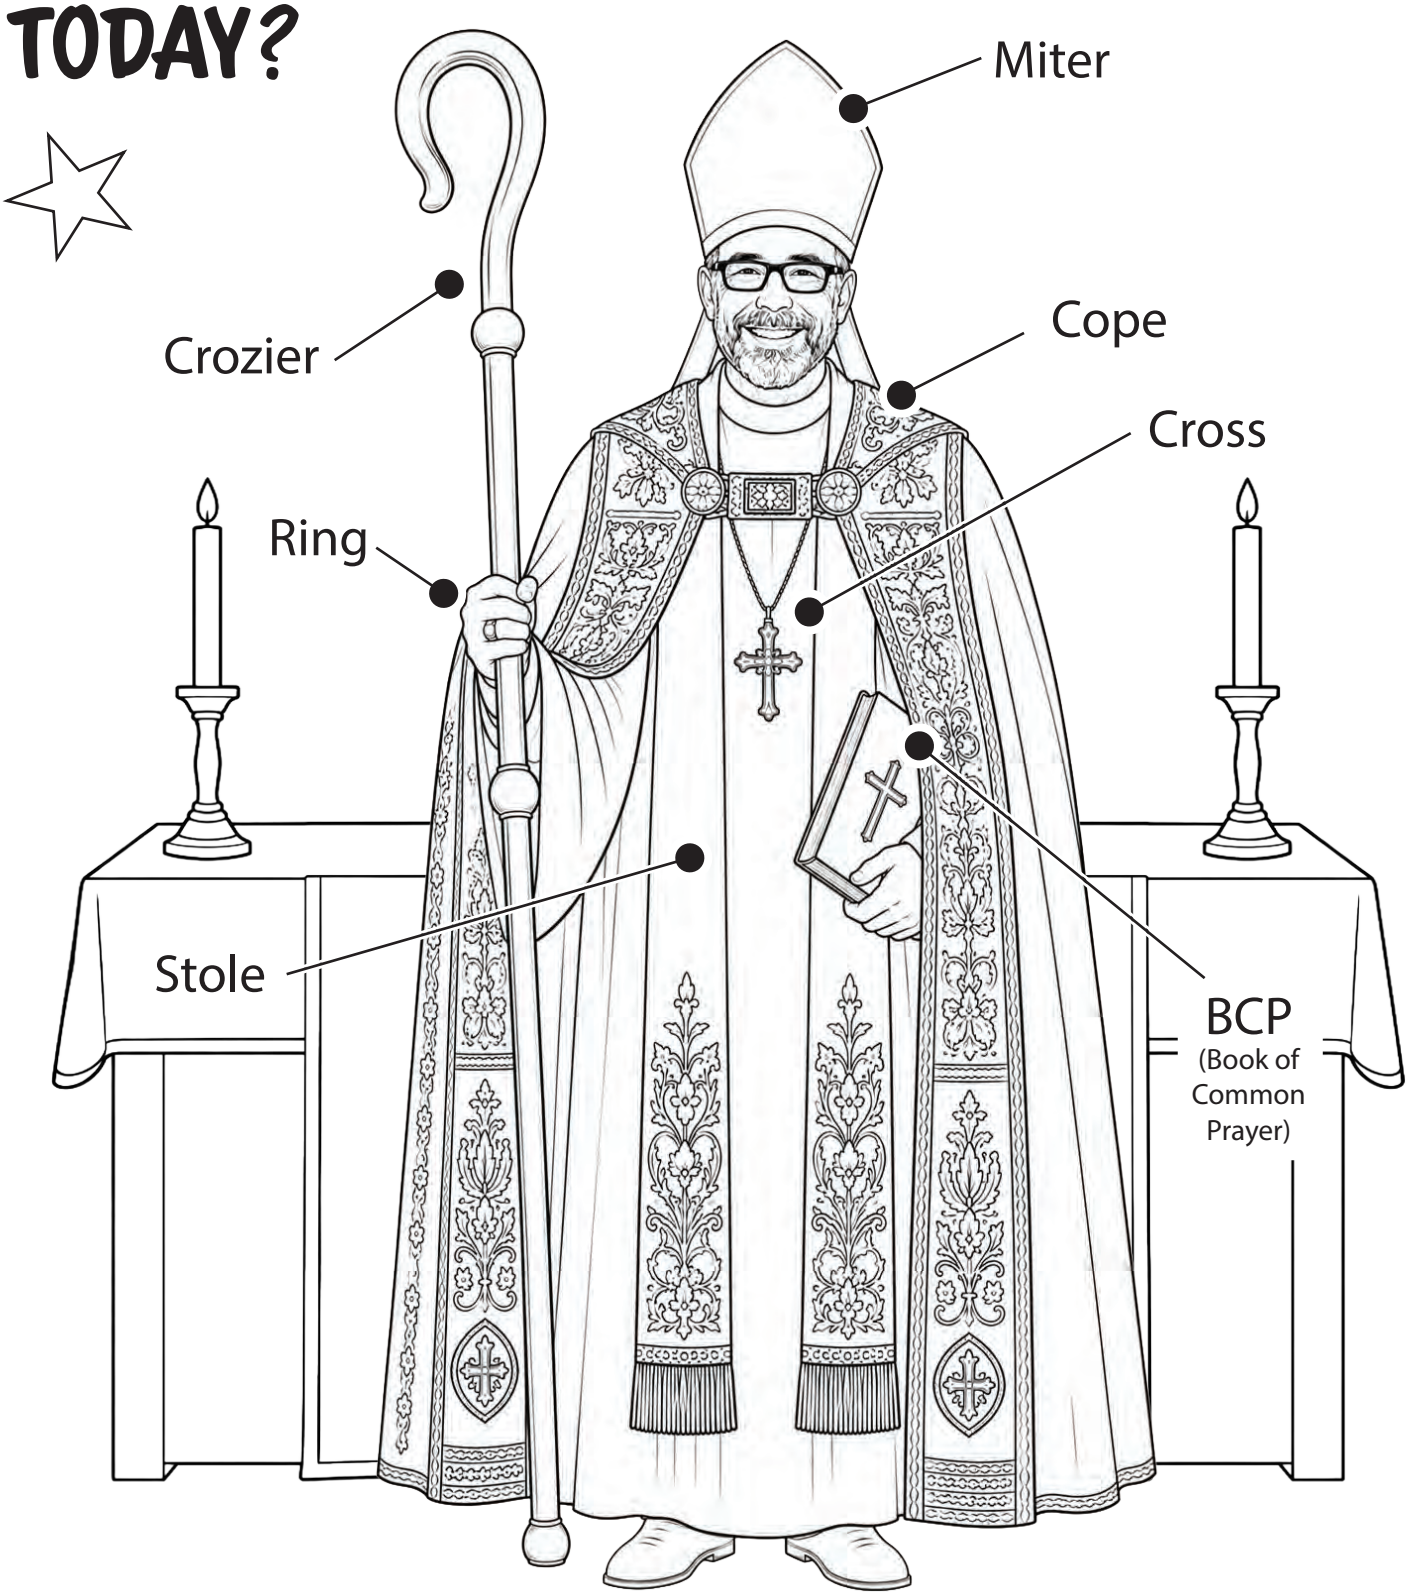

The Rt. Rev. Brian Richard Seage joined the Episcopal Diocese of Texas in 2025 as part-time Assisting Bishop. Before that, he served as the Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi. He and his wife Kyle have two adult children. Bishop Seage oversees the North Region of our diocese, including Fort Worth, Hillsboro, and Keller. He graduated from Pepperdine University and received his Master of Divinity from the Seminary of the Southwest in Austin.

Brian grew up in Mississippi. He served for many years in parish ministry in Mississippi and Calfornia, including 16 years as a rector. He also has a special place in his heart for Episcopal summer camp, having been a camp session director at Camp Bratton-Green in Mississippi every summer for 13 years!
